- EFTS transfer is preferred: DEASA does not yet have facilities for credit card payments. Please use delegates surname and initials as reference.
- Please bring the original registration form and proof of payment to the conference for verification.
- The registration form should reach the organising committee as soon as possible.
- Cash payments at the conference are discouraged as this represents a security risk to all concerned. However, if it is unavoidable please note that only South African Rands can be accepted and only a hand-written receipt can be supplied.
- EFTS payments that are received and cleared into the conference bank account should result in confirmation of payment from your own bank. DEASA and Nadeosa will not send an acknowledgement of payment unless a specific request is received.
